

CAPT. FARLEY
NOMINATED.Monster Convention of Republicans at the City Hall.

FULL CITY TICKET NAMED.

A Few of the Old Council Nominated for the New Council.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MEETING.

The Republicans of Paducah met in mass convention at the city hall this afternoon to nominate a candidate for mayor, city prosecuting attorney, judge of the police court, city marshal, councilmen and school trustees.

At 2 o'clock, the time for calling the convention to order, the city court room, in which the meeting was held, was completely filled.

Mr. J. W. Cosby, chairman of the city committee, called the convention to order, and stated the purpose of the meeting, and that the election of a permanent chairman and secretary was the first thing in order.

Mr. F. M. Fisher was chosen permanent chairman. He thanked the convention, and stated that it was a pleasure to preside over a Republican convention, and that it was the largest convention he had seen in twenty years. He said he hoped everybody would be ready, at the close of the convention, to pull off his coat and work for the good of the party. He said that the Republican party was now in better shape than ever before.

John Moore, colored, was chosen secretary.

On motion the chair was authorized to appoint a committee of five on resolutions. The chair appointed Messrs. J. J. Dorton, George Bauserman, Frank Sayre, Elder George Burke and George Harvey the committee. They retired to draft resolutions.

PLANS FOR A NEW RAILROAD.

Fifty Millions Predicted as the Next Winter's Output.

LATEST FROM THE SCENE.

Seattle, Wash., July 21.—Steamers arriving today from Alaska bring the most marvelous stories of the new gold region. Miners predict that fifty millions in gold will be taken out of the Klondyke region next winter.

Seattle, Wash., July 20.—The Hon. C. H. McNish, governor of the Northwest Territory, in which is included the far-famed Klondyke district, is in Seattle. The Governor freely subscribed to the truthfulness of the stories sent out as to the richness of the new diggings. He estimates that the Klondyke and its tributaries yielded over $5,000,000 in gold last winter. Of this amount he says $2,000,000 and upwards came via the steamships Portland and Excelsior. More than a million dollars in dust, he says, is now stored away in the cabins of miners along the creek being developed.

"The British Yukon yield of gold for 1897," the Governor resumed, "will not be less than $10,000, 000."

He says surveyors are now at work trying to ascertain the feasibility of the construction of a railroad into the Yukon. One route contemplates a line of steamers from Fort Wrangle up the Styken river.

The line which seems most likely to be established contemplates the operation of a line of steamers from Ft.
Wrangle up the Styken river to Telegraph creek, there to connect with a narrow gauge railroad to be built from that point 130 miles to Teslin lake, and thence by boat along a series of lakes and rivers to the Yukon.

The British Columbia Legislature granted three railway charters last winter for the Yukon from St. Michael's. The second route is by steamer to Juneau, thence by river boat to Dyea, from thence by foot to lakes forming the headwaters of the Yukon, thirty miles distant.

At the lakes the traveler must build a boat and descend to Dawson.
The heart of the Klondyke country is sixteen miles east of the British Columbia boundary and 750 miles due east of St. Michael's. Mail from Klondyke can be sent by either route, that via Juneau being used exclusively in winter, when carriers travel with dogs and sledges.

The proposed route would shorten the trip more than 3,000 miles.

DR. EVERETT REFUSES TO GO

Will Not Conduct a Part to Klondyke for $15,000.

Tacoma, Wash., July 20.—Dr.
Willis E. Everett, the expert metallurgist, has refused $15,000 to conduct a party of New Yorkers into the Klondyke country. He spent two years making a topographical survey of the Yukon and Klondyke country for the United States government, and says he has yet to see a man who lived in the country two years and kept his health. The heat of the summer days, he says, is worse than the frightfully cold winters.

LAST STEAMER OF THE YEAR

Will Leave San Francisco Sunday
For the Yukon River.

San Francisco, July 20.—The excitement over the recent discovery of gold in Alaska still continues here, and when the steamer Excelsior leaves for St. Michael's next Sunday she will carry all the miners' supplies she can hold. The Excelsior will be the last steamer this year from San Francisco to connect with the Yukon steamers, but there is already talk of chartering another steamer to take up a crowd of miners. No more news from the Klondyke regions will be received until the steamers leaving here and Seattle have returned.

MAY HANG UP.

The Senate May Refuse to Confirm Powderly's Appointment.

Washington, July 20.—The Senate committee on immigration attempted to secure a meeting today to consider the nomination of the Hon. T. V. Powderly to be commissioner of immigration, but failed to obtain a quorum.

The meeting developed the fact that confirmation will be opposed by some senators on the ground that Powderly's appointment is distasteful to the labor element.

Another attempt will be made to take up the nomination tomorrow.

HAVE you ever tried to imagine how Paducah would look with her electric wires of all kinds under ground.
That is where they ought to be.

WHAT a time affair the morning Gazette would be if it could not carve around about the Sun and the alleged Republican scrap.

Does the "News" mean that the free silver Republicans and the sound money Democrats in Paducah will fuse, or was that paper just joking.

TIMES may be hard in Paducah but the street car companies and the crowds that visit the parks every night, bespeak a happy and contented people.

ALASKA cost the United States about $7,000,000. But that is now a mere bagatelle in comparison with her vast deposits of gold and other mineral wealth.

PHOF. ANDER has started, so it is said, for the North Pole. But it is barely possible that he may stop at the Alaska gold fields. A good claim there now would be worth more than the North Pole itself.

The campaign for the municipal election here this fall will not be a mud-slinging campaign, though the attitude of one of Paducah's papers would lead one to that belief. The ticket nominated today will be a clean ticket and the campaign will be fought out on business principles.

This thing of discovering gold is becoming almost monotonous. The latest gold mine to be opened to the world is in Pennsylvania, the land of petroleum and coal. And with the announcement of this latest discovery comes that of a silver mine in Roanoke county, Virginia. Nature is evidently about to try her hand on the gold and silver question.

The appointment of the currency commission that the President asks for in his message to congress today, is but the first step in the fulfillment of an important campaign pledge. It is generally believed that our currency laws are susceptible of a change for the better, and that this currency commission will be able to suggest a new and better currency system.

PADUCAH can easily attain a population of 40,000 people in the next ten years, if she devotes her attention to manufacturing. We have our rivers and river trade; we have our railroads and both are enlarging their interests here. We have our wholesale trade, that rivals Louisville, Memphis and St. Louis. These have made Paducah. The natural advantages that have fostered our wholesale trade, will do as much for our manufacturing interests that we may have. Paducah's motto should be,
"More Factories."

THE COMING CAMPAIGN.
The nomination of a city ticket this afternoon by the Republican party marks the beginning of the municipal campaign, though the hard work will not necessarily begin at once. This campaign, as far as the Sun and the Republicans are concerned will be a clean one. The Democrats have evolved the same determination, except the morning "Register," which has gone far out of its way to display its vile and filthy instincts.

The question before the people is that of selecting the best municipal ticket. In deciding which ticket will best manage the city's affairs, the attitude of the candidate upon certain questions of public import will doubtless be discussed. Paducah is just entering upon the most important part of her history; the next few years will determine her rank among the cities of the South. Much can be done by a liberal and energetic city government. What the city will need above all will be a strictly business council.

As far as the Sun is concerned, mud-slinging will not be a part of the campaign. That will be relegated to the "Register," which is a past master in that art.
In this campaign that paper will have the peculiar distinction of being Paducah's blatherskite sheet. It has already earned the title.

GO TO SCHOOL, SONNY.
On Monday the Sun made the following statement in the course of an article:

"(I. e., the 'Register') hopes to make itself solid with the free silver element, for it is utterly lost in the respect of the sound money Democrats, by its scurrilous remarks about certain prominent Republicans."

The "Register," in order to make a point, quoted the sentence as follows:

"The 'Register' has utterly lost the respect of the sound money Demo-
certain prominent Republicans."
The Sun then accused the "Register" of misquoting the sentence, and the "Register" replies by repeating the money quotations and says that the Sun is "caught in a barefaced lie."

The amateur editor of the "Register" should betake him to a grammar school and learn a few points about the English language, and he should also remember that using the word "lie" in journalism is but a coward's argument.

A GLOWING TRIBUTE.

McKinley Will be Classed Among the "Popular Presidents of America."

His Domestic Relations, Simplicity of Character and Kindness of Heart Have Endured Him to the Whole Nation.

From the Pine Bluff (Ark.) Commercial.
(Free Silver Organ)

In spite of the criticisms which are being made of the present administration, its chief, Hon. William Mc-Kinley, if his conduct during the closing part of his term favorably compares with the beginning, will be classed by the future historians among "The Popular Presidents of America." While he gracefully bears the dignity of his office, his quiet manners and simple tastes are without parallel among the prominent men of the day, and are such as to commend him to what is popularly known as "the people." On the occasion of his visits to his home at Canton, it is by his special requests that no public demonstrations are made, and in fact whatever he does or declines to do is as apparent now as ever. He strolls down Pennsylvania avenue, stopping here and there to greet a friend or such other acquaintances as he may meet as an ordinary man would do, and it is the verdict of the whole of Washington that there is no difference, so far as outward appearances go, between his conduct as a Congressman from Ohio and the President of the United States. Unlike Harrison, he has no lady McKee with which to run the country and the movements of his family are kept in the background from a consciousness that the domestic affairs of a public character are of no avail to any one except himself. Whenever the President is spoken of at all in connection with Mrs. McKinley, it is in a commonplace way. There is no gossip or rumor of "drunkenness" or "cruel treatment" around the White House, such as marked the last administration, but the truth is McKinley is fond of his wife, and the story goes that his whole life is saddened by the fact of her delicate health and her inability to fully enjoy the pleasures which properly belong to the "first lady of the land."

All his public utterances have a patriotic ring, and what the democratic aspirer to, winning popular favor by unfair and insincere methods. Mr. McKinley has accomplished by leading a life that is true to his nature. His domestic relations, simplicity of character and kindness of heart have endeared him to the whole people, regardless of politics. The stiffness and ostentation which pervaded the White House during his predecessor's occupancy are gone, and there are cordiality and good cheer for all alike. When Mr. Bayard said to his English friends that Americans are impulsive and warlike, and often required a character like Grover Cleveland to keep them in check, he made a statement that has been disproved already. With the great diversified and conflicting interests of the United States, we have a president uniformly kind and gentle, and while there are rumors of war in almost every other nation on the globe, our country is at peace with all the world, and the only moments of regret are those of the sturdy, good people of the nation allow themselves to retrospect with reverence to "the Stuffed Prophet of Princeton."

TO END THE CUBAN WAR.

Early Presentation of Minister Woodford at San Sebastian Significant.

Administration Confident That Peace Will Soon be Concluded —Vast Importance of the New Minister's Mission.

Washington, July 20.—Minister Woodford is to be presented to the Queen at San Sebastian. An intimation that this courtesy will be extended has reached Washington. It possesses considerable significance.
Under ordinary circumstances the new minister would not be received until the court returns to Madrid.
That will be in October. But for the courtesy to be extended in this case Minister Woodford would remain unrecognized two months after his arrival in Spain and Minister Taylor would continue to discharge the duties of the representative of the United States.

It is expected to reach the Spanish court at San Sebastian between the 20th of August and the 1st of September. Gen. Woodford said today, after coming from the White House.

"I have no doubt," he added,
"that everything will be done that will make my stay pleasant and beneficial to both governments."

The reception of Minister Woodford at San Sebastian means that he will begin negotiations to end the war in Cuba immediately upon his arrival. The Minister was closeted with Assistant Secretary Day sometime at the State Department today.
Then he went to the White House and had a half hour's talk with the President. It is not probable that he will return to Washington before sailing. His instructions are complete. En route to Spain he will stop in London and Paris for brief consultations with Ambassadors Hay and Porter. About these stops Gen.
Woodford declined to talk. It is supposed that he will give the Ambassadors some information as to his instructions and the diplomatic work he is to undertake. The advantage of having the American Ambassadors at London and Paris informed of what is to be attempted at Madrid is apparent.

Gen. Woodford left in fine spirits.
He is much more hopeful of accomplishing favorable results than he was when he began to study the Cuban question. The administration is confident. All of the recent information from official and other sources encourages the belief that the efforts of the United States will be aided by intense anxiety of the part of Spain and of all elements in Cuba to see the end of the war brought to a close.
When Gen. Woodford sailed upon his preparations for this mission it appeared that months of difficult diplomatic effort would be required to bring Spain to the acceptance of the good offices of this government.
Now there are indications that a few weeks will show the effects of Minister Woodford's representations. Until recently it seemed as if there might be considerable difficulty in bringing the insurgents to accept anything but independence, but conditions are changing so rapidly on the island that it is now thought a basis can be found upon which all will accept peace. When the President began to work upon a Cuban policy the outlook was dark. It is now bright for success.

large supply of coal, anticipating a coal famine. We have no Josephs or Egyptians, but a Moses No. 2.
The pay car came across from Brooklyn yesterday afternoon, making glad the hearts of Agent Stovall's force of assistants, also a large number of trainmen, and to our gratification many found their way into savings banks which speak a great deal for progress in the profession.

The festive accident insurance agent, like the poor, we have with us right often, and sometimes sooner if any prospects of new business.
Murphy is in town when you see him take to your heels if you want to catch your arm or put Flagman Gossett after him.

Conductor J. C. Michie will wear long face for the next thirty days.
Please don't ask him why, he wears such a dejected look right on the eve of so much "prosperity," for he will be taxed to meet his barber bills as they will have to increase the price.
Flagman M. Wilson says he has set the pace and only bad behavior can trot it "just as easy." All that is necessary is to keep the local organized and his speech in time.

Conductor Frank Wheeler can now be found in the little red caboose behind the train on 155 and 172. The brass button Cons. are all back at their posts, which reduces Frank and Chippy to the high ball runs.

Conductor Will Foster made an extra run up to Atoka last week from Grenada, Miss. Seems real mean to keep him away down there when all that is near and dear to him is on this line. (See Romans 8-28.) You'll have regular runs up here before long if all suspicious are true.

Conductor Ed McCutchen has been circulating for the past few days a petition among his weather friends protesting against so much rain, as it neither suits his cloth nor his profession, (gathering blackberries).

Flagman Statten has accepted a ten days' lay-off, which he will utilize with profit in posting up on the book of rules. His attention has been especially called to the latter part of rule 117 (b) by Trainmaster Fratts.

R. W. Hall's late escape from Harnum & Bailey's late circus (chief cavans man), has accepted the chieftain position of G. Y. M. at New-bern, Tenn. Pink is an old railroad, having run the first train into Mobile over the M. & O. R. R. Though daily in receipt of offers from the leading show companies of the world, he chooses to stick to his first love.

We are glad to see Engineer Joe Randall back at the throttle. Many a thousand miles has he pulled the writer and without a scratch, either on their person or feelings. So we say to him, here's to you, Joe, and may your bright countenance continue to throw off the radiance of the summer's noonday, and a thousand thanks to the officials, especially Vice President Harahan.

DAMAGE SUITS

Transferred to the U. S. Court Here From Mayfield.

THE WHITT WILL CASE UP.

Mayfield Matters of Interest to Outside People.

PENSION MAN LET OUT THERE.

The $25,000 damage suits of the administrators of the Wm. Bates and Jack H. Bates estates against the Illinois Central Railroad Company, have been transferred from the circuit court at Mayfield to the U. S. court here, and transcripts have been filed in the U. S. commissioner's office. The cases will come up at the November term of court.

Bates and H. Bates, it will be remembered, were driving from a primary election at Mayfield to their home near Pryorsburg last spring when their buggy was struck by the "cannon-ball" and they were instantly killed.

The Mayfield Woolen Mills have a new foreman in the sewing department, Mr. P. C. Beaman, of St.
Louis, to succeed Mr. Gerson, who has been engaged in a damage suit for the past month for alleged mistreatment of a young lady employee.
During his connection with the mill he is charged with having caused a small strike and had the mill sued for damages.

The family of the late Jack Johnson, who was killed some weeks ago by Jesse Kirkland for abducting the latter's daughter, is said to be in desperate circumstances at Mayfield.
Mrs. Johnson has five children, the oldest being nine years and the youngest is an infant. It is said also that Kirkland's family are very needy.

The petition of R. M. Beasles and others for a vote on the proposition to establish a graded school in Mayfield was granted in county court yesterday, and the sheriff ordered to hold the election Saturday, September 4.

The postoffice matter at Mayfield, according to the "Mirror," is still in statu quo. According to reports one of the applicants, Mr. O. H. Happy, agreed to withdraw his application in favor of Mr. L. W. Key, on condition of procuring a better job. Mr.
Happy telegraphed his willingness for his application to be withdrawn, but the President has not sent Mr. Key's name to the Senate yet. Some think Mr. Happy may get the office after all.

The home of Rev. J. C. Shelton, south of town a few miles, is getting up a reputation as a Gretna Green, says the Mayfield "Mirror." He has married four couples in the past two weeks, which were semi-dope-ments. He says he is ready at all times, except Sunday, to perform these blissful rites and guarantees satisfaction, if the parties will live up to the vows they take. Last week he married John Flood and Miss Chester, and James Stephens and Mrs.
Cox, all of whom live in town.

Dr. W. R. Ruble, says the Mayfield Mirror, who was recently appointed on the board of pension examiners here, was relieved of his commission last week. He received a letter from H. Clay Evans, commissioner of pensions, requesting him to turn the papers over to Dr. Taylor, another member of the board. It is understood Dr. Landrum will succeed him. Dr. Ruble don't know why he was turned out, but supposes it is because he belongs to the wrong faction of his party.

Circuit court re-convened at Mayfield this morning and took up the celebrated Obidiah Whitt will case, the trial of which will probably consume two days.

Rev. Obidiah Whitt died a few months ago, and a will was probated by two of his children, which left all of his property to them, and one of his children, a Mrs. May, was left out and retained Attorneys Johnston and Evers to contest the validity of the will, alleging that her sister and brother had used undue influence over her father to get him to sign the will.

Important Notice.
All persons knowing themselves indebted to the firms of Rogers & King and John Rogers & Son are hereby warned to call and settle the same at once at my office, No. 127 South Fourth street, and thereby acknowledge themselves as such, and I will be bound to proceed by law to collect unless otherwise settled promptly.

DRIFTWOOD

Saved From the Waters, Corralled on the Levee.

Items of Special Interest to River
People.

River traffic around the harbor this morning was of very little force. The arrivals and departures were the local packets, which were doing very little business, making things on the wharf and levee have a dull appearance.

The only lower Ohio river packet out of this port, the Dick Fowler, skipped out for Cairo at 8:30 prompt this morning. She did not lay here awaiting the arrival of the packet from Evansville as usual, owing to their running on irregular time the last few days.

The river here was on the stand throughout yesterday, but last night during the wee sma' hours crawled the distance of about two-tenths up the government gauge. A rise this high of the year is a little unexpected, but was received with open arms by all river men, especially the big packet pilots. Though a two-inch swell is not much of a rise, anyway, river men are living in hopes that there is more to come which will no doubt bring out some of the little steamers and thus give employment to some of the many idle engineers and pilots.

The Ashland City arrived here out of the Tennessee last night, and left on her return to Danville today at noon.

The big Mayflower, running on excellent time, passed into the Tennessee last night from St. Louis. She had a fair miscellaneous freight trip besides some excursionists.

The big "Ragtown" boat, State of Kansas, arrived here yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock from Cincinnati.
She only remained here a short time and left for New Orleans after transacting business here.

The John S. Hopkins was several hours behind time in arriving and departed for Evansville yesterday.

The Joe Fowler was the big mail liner today for the "Hoosier City," but had not reported at noon, though is expected to be in and away before dark tonight.

The H. W. Butterff was in out of the Cumberland this morning at 9 o'clock, doing a very fair business.
She left on her return up that steam to Nashville at noon with very fair freight receipts in addition to a nice list of passengers.

After eight years of faithful service the little harbor boat, Mary N. is now lying up at the St. Bernard Coal Co's wharf, a condemned steamer being crossed out by the local government inspectors here Monday when she underwent her annual inspection. She will be put on the ways here just as soon as the big side wheel steamer City of Oceola is let in the river and a brand new hull will be built under her in addition to other numerous repairs which she will be vented to. Her machinery will be put in excellent condition and when she comes off the ways to stand re-inspection she will no doubt stand the Lamasco was taken out on the ways yesterday afternoon for repairs. A force of men went to work on her this morning and will give her a thorough overhauling. Her hull is reported to be in a very bad condition, but when she is let in the river again it will be in excellent shape and almost as good as new.

Notwithstanding the cloudy weather, the Sunshine will be here today all the same. She is en route from Memphis to Cincinnati.

The docks are repairing some barges and are working a nice force of ship carpenters, caulkers and laborers.

A little gasoline pleasure yacht was pulled out on the bank at the foot of Court street yesterday afternoon for some slight repairs.

Engineer Clay Warden has a job which is something unusual, so now don't wonder at the river rising.

Pilot Woolfolk, of the Bettie Owen reports that there is still very good water at the head of the bar and expects to make all his runs throughout the low water season. Last year during the low water they were compelled to run around the foot of the bar which makes it a considerable longer distance to the illinois landing.

The test as well as a new boat. She was built here in 1888 by the local boat builders and her dimensions are 60 feet long, 14 feet wide and has a 3-foot hold. She has been a faithful little tow boat and has done no little amount of work, and her crew, consisting of Capt. Mason, her pilot; Capt. Al Mason, her engineer, and her genial fireman, Mr. John Blinn, regretted laying their little pet up, but have brought out the tug Ida in her stead.

MARRIAGE TO-NIGHT.

Miss Ella McNett and Mr. W. H.
Robb to be united.

The nuptials of Miss Ella McNett, of the city, to Mr. William Henry Robb, of De Land, Fla., will be solemnized tonight at 8:30 o'clock at Grace Episcopal church, Rector Reed officiating.

The bride to be is one of Paducah's most accomplished young ladies, and Mr. Robb is a prominent young resident of the Alligator State.
They will leave at once on a bridal tour and will reside in Florida.

We have fitted up one of the nicest barber shops in the state in the room next door to DeLand, formerly occupied by DeLand for a restaurant. We have employed Kelly Avant and San-shayden, two well known barbers, assist us. Our motto is polite attention, clean towels, and sharp rasors. Thanking our customers for their favors, and asking them to continue with us, and the public at large, we remain,
WILL LOTT AND DAVID TANNER.

THREE CLUBS OUT.

Evansville and Terre Haute Follow the Example of Washington - But All May Be Well.

GENERAL BASEBALL NEWS.

The Paducah baseball club arrived at noon on the Joe Fowler from Washington, Ind., where it last played. It was scheduled to play at Evansville today, but yesterday afternoon Evansville and Terre Haute both dropped out of the league, leaving only Paducah, Cairo and Henderson.

A dispatch from Evansville to the Courier-Journal of today says: The Central baseball league expired today. While dissolution has been threatened for several days past, the break came from a source least expected. Washington quit business last night, and today Terre Haute and Evansville decided to follow suit. The principal cause of the break was the continuous bad weather. Sunday games out a big figure in this league, and the loss of several crumpled the individual clubs considerably.

President Einstein called a meeting of the Paducah association for 1 o'clock this afternoon, and it will at this meeting be determined what will be done.

President Einstein said this morning that despite the dropping out of Terre Haute and Washington, the League was by no means yet disorganized, and would not be until it was ascertained whether or not the three franchises held by Washington, Terre Haute and Evansville could be disposed of to other cities. Owensboro has been clamoring to enter the league ever since it was formed, and is a good baseball town. Danville, Ill., wants one of the franchises, it is understood, and the outlook at this writing was not so discouraging as it might be imagined, although the dissolution may take place at this afternoon's meeting.

Paducah, Cairo and Henderson are on a sound basis, and have held their own throughout the season. If the franchises of the other places go begging the league will of necessity disband.

The board of directors of the baseball association decided that Paducah would remain in the league. The prospects for a continuation of the league are good.

SQUIRE SEEDFUL

Learns Something New of City Customs.

"What's them ropes for?" inquired "Squire Seedful, of Haytown, or vicinity, at Third and Broadway this morning as he pointed to the cordons that barred the passage on the newly completed square of level street. The rope was put there to keep wagons off the thoroughfare until it becomes completed.

"Why, we're going to have a dance there tonight," spoke up a neighboring wag, "peevish that you could have cut the yoke's veranity with a cheese knife. Those ropes are stretched there to keep the street smooth."

"Gosh," grinned the greenhorn, "I'd like to see town feller had dare site better places than them sort for yer break-downs!"

"We have," explained the wag, "but this is the biggest dance of the season, and it takes a whole street and three brass bands to get it up right."

"I'd shore like to shake down at 'er," observed the astonished fellow, as he thoughtfully scanned the level expanse of street, "but I don't see how 'em in a street with three brass bands to keep 'em moving! Say, partner, will them hands all play the same tune?"

"Oh, I guess so," faltered the joker. "They're giving away free tickets in Wallerstein's there."

The guileless visitor slowly tramped through the Broadway and disapproved within the clothing store to "git one of them free tickets to 'd dance."
